

Transnational Crime Media Watcher

Project Title	Transnational Crime Media Watcher
Project Summary	Through open source research, build an understanding of transnational crime in Asia, especially in regards to narcotics, people, and wildlife trafficking, and illicit finance.
Country	United States
Country/Region of Focus	East Asia and Pacific

Project Description

The Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement (INL) at the Department of State is seeking motivated virtual interns to follow local media outlets and social media throughout Asia and conduct open source analysis on transnational criminal activity in Asia. The interns will report to Foreign Service Officers in INL and their reporting will have direct impact on U.S. Government policies to combat such illicit activity.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)
Analytical writing
Political Analysis
Research
Writing

Additional Information

We are looking for at least one intern who speaks Chinese. Other non-Chinese speaking interns will also be accepted. Other Asian languages are preferred for those positions, but not required.

Language Requirements

Language	Speaking Proficiency	Reading Proficiency	Importance
Chinese-Mandarin	No practical proficiency	Full professional proficiency	Nice to Have